

IN THE SPECIFICATION

Please cancel the originally filed specification and substitute therefor the enclosed substitute specification. Applicants respectfully submit that the substitute specification conforms to more typical U.S. practice and will greatly facilitate prosecution of the present application. Applicants further respectfully submit that no new matter has been added to the specification not found in the originally filed specification, claims, and drawings.

A marked-up copy of the original specification is enclosed for the Examiner's reference.